

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 25, 2007

MAYOR JERRY SANDERS MEDIA ADVISORY

Mayor Announces Reopening of All Residential Areas in the City

Damage at La Terraza Condominiums Limits Resident Access There Access to City Areas of San Pasqual Valley Limited by Road Closure

Mayor Sanders has announced that all residential areas of the City of San Diego are now open and available for repopulation. With the exception of the fire damaged La Terraza condominium complex (10878 Poblado Rd.), all areas of North Rancho Bernardo and the community of Westwood are now open for access by residents only.

Access to City areas in the San Pasqual Valley are still limited by an ongoing road closure near the intersection of San Pasqual Valley Road and Old Milky Way.

All residents returning to their homes are asked to proceed with caution near any fire damaged structures. City public works crews, police and fire officials will remain in the most recently opened areas throughout the day to assist in the repopulation effort.

LOCAL ASSISTANCE CENTER AVAILABLE TO RESIDENTS

The Local Assistance Center opened by the Mayor will be available to residents open from 7 am to 8 pm Monday through Friday, 8 am to 4 pm Saturdays and 9 am to 2 pm on Sundays.

The Center is located at the Rancho Bernardo Glassman Recreation Center at 18448 West Bernardo Drive, San Diego, 92127.

Posted 1045 hrs., October 25, 2007